Use the number sequence above and tighten each bolt to create a uniform pressure on the connection.

1. Begin by applying hand pressure only.
2. Apply minimal torque to take up any openings between the flanges.
3. Take the torque to ½ the recommended level.
4. Apply the full rated torque to the flange bolts.
5. Repeating the tightening sequence at the full torque to verify.